Please do not let telemarketer's start calling my home again at all hours. If I want to purchase something, I will go out and buy it on my own. No one should call me to see if there is something I don't want. I would also endorse a NO-FAX list.